Who We Are

History

Mimi Productions was founded by Michelle De Long, an Emmy and Telly award winning television and video production professional. After 15 years at the NBC Television Network, Ms. De Long began the company in 2005 and has quickly gained many national and international clients.

Keeping a diverse type video production that ranges from corporate communications, marketing videos, small to medium budget commercials, viral video and television, Mimi Productions strenghtens the vision of their clients with a simple phrase, "We help you, Make People Care."

Since 2005 Mimi Productions has won seven Telly Awards, and a Davey Award.

Mimi Productions is majority female owned.

Principals

Michelle De Long,
Executive Producer/President

Mimi Productions was founded by Michelle De Long, an Emmy award winning, 15-year veteran of television series and news production. Michelle has produced and edited many documentary and feature films; produced, written, directed and created commercials and corporate videos; and produced Telly award winning television and web series.

David J. Miller,
Producer/Writer/Director/Vice President

Dave has produced 9 feature films with his company Mindlight Films. He has also written and directed numerous commercial campaigns for Mimi Productions' clients. Dave is co-founder of Viral Film Video, the sister internet/viral arm of Mimi Productions.
